Competition caution

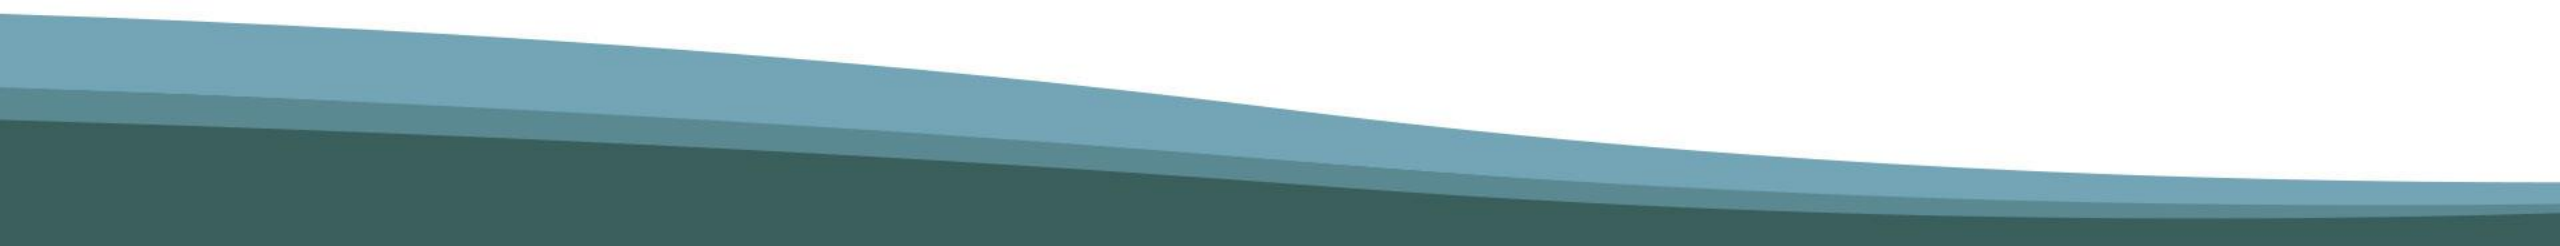

The ACCC requires that participants at this meeting must not enter into any discussion, arrangement or understanding that may, in any way, infringe applicable competition laws.

In particular, members and participants must not:

- discuss or agree on production limits or strategies, prices (including rebates and discounts), marketing territories, bids or tenders;
- discuss or agree on dealings with customers or third parties, including trading terms and conditions;
- exchange any non-public or commercially sensitive information relating to -
 - purchasing, production and supply chain strategy or capacity,
 - marketing or advertising strategy, or
 - profit, costs or revenues.

Such topics must be avoided both in the formal meetings and in any informal discussions before, during or after meetings. Please keep discussions within the scope of the set agenda items as off-topic discussions may represent a compliance risk.

Participants are encouraged at any time to challenge any discussions that might contravene this statement.

Acknowledgement of country

The Australian Food and Grocery Council acknowledges the Traditional Owners of Country throughout Australia. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging.

Upcoming Webinars

Oil Crisis 2026 – Pathways to Disruption Webinar

Wednesday 13 May 2026 - Online

1:00pm to 2:00pm AEST

This webinar examines the implications of sustained oil price volatility and supply disruption arising from the Iran conflict, with a primary focus on petrochemical exposure and downstream economic and insurance impacts for the Australian Food and Beverage industry. It highlights immediate cost pressures across fuel and freight, while addressing the escalating risk that prolonged disruption could constrain refined fuel and petrochemical supply into Australia, amplifying operational, supply chain and pricing pressures.
